Rec. May 6, 1875

TO THE READER.

A Book of Judgements, (out of which this was transcribed) coming to the hands of a Stationer, who defired to have it Printed if it might be thought fitting; He requested my Perusal thereof, and furtherance therein: I found the A3 same fame to be most of Special Judgements, or Entries in the Court of CommonPleas. in the times of King JAMES, Queen ELIZABETH, and fome Ancienter, all for the most part ill written, with too many Abbreviations by &c. without Order, Table, or fitting Marginal Notes; Yet finding most part to be of good Matter and Forms, and thinking it fit to be Published; I first Tabled it, and then caused it to be written forth in as good a Method as

To the READER.

I could; which I Perufed, and fomwhat Corrected, adding Marginal Notes. I concieve the same princippally to concern the Prothonotaries of the Court of Common-Pleas, and their Clerks of Judgements, but may be often useful to Clerks of the KingsBench, the Exchequer, IRELAND, Counties Palatine, Franchises and Corporations, & many other Practicers at Law.
